Situated in the heart of the Pays d'Auge, at the gateway to Lisieux and its basilica, you can discover the Domaine des 5 D, at the foot of the hillside orchards, formerly known as the Pré des Vignes, in reference to the vines once grown on this plot of land. It is this beautiful south-facing exposure that gives all the flavours to the different varieties of apples from the orchard, which are used to make various products in the cider factory. We welcome visitors on site on weekday afternoons, where they can discover, taste and buy our products and attend the various stages of apple picking and brewing, mainly between October and November, when the activity is in full swing. Daufresne cider is a must-have on the tables of the Côte Fleurie. Well-known to Parisian holidaymakers, it regularly wins prizes at the Concours Général de Paris.

The 16th century half-timbered wine press has barrels more than a hundred year old. LA CHAMPIGNONNIÈRE D'ORBEC

T. 06 73 59 51 17

lechampiondorbec@gmail.com

Orbec Mushroom Farm is one of the last in Normandy that cultivates its mushrooms in a natural cellar. Situated on the border between the two towns of Orbec and La Vespière, this natural cellar certainly sheltered the first inhabitants of Orbec. Exploited as a quarry from the Middle Ages until the beginning of the 20th century, the chalk extracted from the site now distinguishes some beautiful mansions in Orbec built with this material. The transformation of the mushroom growing site dates back to the 1930s and continues to this day. Operations were even maintained at a low level when the site was used as a refuge for civilians after the Allied landings in the summer of 1944. Occupied in the evenings and then nights and days on the eve of the liberation of the city by the Canadians at the end of August 1944, the mushroom farm welcomed up to 2127 people within its walls. Today it is a small family business that happily makes use of this 6,000m² site to produce oyster mushrooms, button mushrooms and shiitake mushrooms. The visit will allow you to discover how to cultivate these 3 mushrooms but also a natural space shaped by man and which is part of the local history.

Duration 1hr 15mins - direct sales made at the end of the visit.

Please bring a small jumper and comfortable shoes.

It is possible to combine this with a visit to the watercress factory on the same day. For groups of hikers there is the possibility of creating a path between the mushroom and watercress farm.

LISIEUX

IN THE DAYS OF SAINT THERESA

Let's go back in time to 1888! Little Thérèse has just entered the convent in Lisieux. This town, which she travelled through with her family, is known by artists for its old timber-framed houses decorated with Gothic sculptures. Industrial or residential bourgeois districts are developing around its ancient town centre. Various markets regularly animate the squares. Business is booming. This visit offers you a chance to explore the town of Thérèse Martin, where pilgrimages took place in the decades that followed.

More and more pilgrims are arriving here to pray to St. Thérèse. There are new buildings on the streets near the station and convent. While the facades of religious souvenir shops are adorned with carved Gothic decorations, companies and hotels opt for a more modern layout comprising of decorative arts. Come and observe these contrasts of the Roaring Twenties, between ostentatious modernity and references to an idealised past.

LIVAROT-PAYS D'AUGE

CITÉ FROMAGÈRE (CHEESE CITY)

Livarot, which has been a metallurgical town since the Middle Ages became the market place for the cheese that would bear its name, from the 17th century onwards. There are also rooms built especially for the maturing of the cheeses. In 1910, the Georges Bisson cheese dairy was set up at the gates of the town next to Mr Georges Leroy's new cheese box factory. The two factories thus became the engines of the city and set the rhythm of town life until the 1960s. Discover the history and heritage of Cheese town!

LIVAROT-PAYS D'AUGE

BRICK COLOUR

Exploratory tour of traditional architecture in the Pays d'Auge, constructed in brick. A little-known, ignored and sometimes neglected architecture, it deserves to be highlighted, particularly on the streets of Livarot, where the care taken in the decoration of façades shows a forgotten gem. It symbolises the wealth of the milk and cheese makers of our countryside who made their fortune by selling their cheeses on the Parisian markets. A way to discover Livarot by the depth of its heritage!

Orbec, this name alone tells us about water, "bec" meaning stream. The development of this city is closely linked to water. It runs through it, feeds it... All these activities have left their mark on the city's heritage and forged its history. Let us take you on a tour along the "becs".
